

How We Helped a Startup Build Out their Executive Team

The Success Story

Company Challenge:

Fountain Life is healthcare services provider committed to delivering the most advanced diagnostics and vetted therapeutics to those who seek a longer, healthier, and more vital life. With a mission to transform the current healthcare system into one that is both proactive and data-driven, Fountain Life was entering its next phase of growth and seeking to expand their executive team with sophisticated, growth-oriented talent. The company engaged JM Search to identify an experienced Chief Legal Officer, who would play a critical role in supporting the business and current executive leadership with its aggressive growth strategy.

Solution:

With a strong understanding of the function, industry, company culture, and growth goals, the JM Search team swiftly identified a Chief Legal Officer with the experience necessary to support Fountain Life's goals. Upon the successful completion of this search, Fountain Life engaged JM Search to seek out several other senior leadership roles, including their VP of Finance, President of Centers, and CMO. Due to this continued success, Fountain Life selected JM Search as their preferred executive recruiting partner.

The JM Search team did a fantastic job helping us find the perfect candidate. I've worked with many other search firms before and never had a firm bring us such consistent, exceptional levels of talent. We were very impressed with JM Search's process from start to finish and look forward to working with them on our other senior level needs.
